

Professor Sutcliffe is a children's Doctor. He is an expert on downstream health effects of ART.

His present studies include health morbidities and mortality in women, men and their offspring involved with fertility treatments.

He speaks all over the world on this topic and has some ancestral french descent!

He collaborates with researchers world wide. When not doing research he is busy clinician in London.