

Herman Tournaye is full professor at the Brussels Free University (VUB) and since 2011 chairman of the department of Gynecology-Fertility in the university hospital of Brussels. In 1986, he graduated as MD, was trained as an OBGYN (1991) and obtained his PhD in 1994, all at the Vrije Universiteit Brussel. He is an EBCOG-ESHRE certified subspecialist in reproductive medicine and an academician of the European Academy for Andrology. As per Sept 1 2018, number of publications on Web of Science is >500. More than 370 peer-reviewed papers were published in the major journals in our field, including > 50 as first and > 65 as last author. His current H-index is 57 with > 13 000 citations. He teaches embryology and reproductive medicine at the Vrije Universiteit Brussel and is coordinator of the Brussels training centres of the European Academy for Andrology and the European Board and College for Obstetrics and Gynecology.